Representative Lisa Subeck and Senator Fred Risser to Hold Budget Listening Session in the 78th Assembly District Thursday March 23th

MADISON – State Representative Lisa Subeck (D-Madison) and Senator Fred Risser (D-Madison) will hold a budget listening session in the 78th Assembly district on Thursday, March 23rd at the Arts Center in Oakwood Village.

"Hearing from constituents is the most important part of our job as legislators," said Rep. Subeck. "This listening session is a great opportunity to let your voice be heard on the Governor's proposed budget and to share ideas on how we can move Wisconsin forward."

Details for the listening session:
March 23, 2017
5:00pm to 7:00pm
Arts Center, Oakwood Village
6205 Mineral Point Road

Members of the public attending can park underground (marked P) under Heritage Oaks, level P1. From there take the elevator to the first floor and follow the signage to the Arts Center.

If you are unable to attend the listening session, Rep. Subeck welcomes your questions and comments via email at rep.subeck@legis.wi.gov or through the mail at: State Capitol, P.O. Box 8953, Madison, WI 53708. You may also call her office at (608) 266-7521.
