Representative Born Appointed to Joint Committee on Finance

Madison – Today Representative Mark Born (R-Beaver Dam) issued the following statement after being appointed to serve on the Joint Committee on Finance by Assembly Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester):

"I am honored to have been chosen to serve on the distinguished Joint Finance Committee for the upcoming session," said Born. "I look forward to drawing from my experience in state and local government as the committee fulfills its primary task of approving the 2017-18 biennial budget."

"Representative Born will be a great fit on the Joint Committee on Finance," said Speaker Robin Vos. "I'm confident he will continue to be a diligent public servant and serve Wisconsin taxpayers well, as he has for his last four years in office."

The Joint Committee on Finance is a 16-member standing committee of the Wisconsin Legislature composed of members from both the State Assembly and Senate. The Committee's primary responsibility is to serve as the principal legislative committee charged with the reviewing the state budget.
