ACCESS TO CAPITAL EVENT TO BE HELD MONDAY, JANUARY 30th

WAUKESHA, Wis. – Ten Waukesha County organizations involved in supporting economic development in Waukesha County are partnering to present a seminar titled “Access to Capital” on Monday, January 30th. The program will begin at 7:30 a.m. in the Waukesha County Technical College, Richard T. Anderson Education Center located at 800 Main Street in Pewaukee.

The event will provide attendees with information about new developments in local, regional and State of Wisconsin financing incentives/programs available to Waukesha County businesses. The newly launched Waukesha County Small Business Leverage Loan Program will be among the highlighted programs.

Other program information to be presented at the event include:

- Waukesha County Revolving Loan Fund
- City of Brookfield Small Business Fund
- Highlights of Community Loan Funds
- Wisconsin Women's Business Initiative Corporation Loan Programs
- Small Business Association Programs
- Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation Programs

The program is a partnership of Heartland Information Research, Inc., Kolb+Co., M&I Bank, A part of BMO Financial Group, Small Business Administration, Waukesha County, Waukesha County Business Alliance, Waukesha County Economic Development Corporation, Wisconsin Business Development Finance Corporation, Wisconsin Women’s Business Initiative Corporation, and Waukesha County Technical College Small Business Center.
