Governor Doyle Seeks Applicants for Jackson County Judicial Vacancy

MADISON - Governor Jim Doyle announced today that he is seeking applicants for appointment as circuit court judge in Jackson County. The new appointment will fill the vacancy created by the death of Jackson County Circuit Court Judge-elect Eric Stutz. The appointee will begin serving on August 1, 2008.

An applicant must be a member in good standing of the Bar of the State of Wisconsin and must reside in Jackson County at the time the appointment becomes effective.

Those interested may obtain an application form electronically from:

Office of the Governor
Attention: Rachel Allen, Appointments Director
