Waukesha Democrats announce 7 candidates seeking office

Waukesha – Jeff Christensen, Chair of the Waukesha Democratic Party announced today that 7 more Democratic candidates officially have or will file for the November partisan elections. This is in addition to the previous 4 candidates who have announced for state office.

The new candidates are: Dawn Caruss of Waukesha, for the 97th Assembly District; Dick Pas of Oconomowoc for the 38th Assembly District; Victor Weers of Brookfield for the 98th Assembly District; Don Vanpool of Waukesha for the 84th Assembly District; Tom Hibbard of Hartland for the 99th Assembly District; David Hucke of Wauwatosa for the 14th Assembly District; and Dwayne Block for Oconomowoc for the 13th Senate District.

“Republican incumbents in Waukesha County should be on alert. We’ve seen a new level of interest in people who are interested in replacing their traditional representation in Madison,” stated Christensen. “It’s becoming obvious to all of us that it is time for us to clean house here in Waukesha County.”

These candidates are in addition to the previously announced candidacies of L.D. “Red” Rockwell of Elkhorn for the 11th Senate District; Aaron Robertson of Muskego for the 83rd Assembly District; Dustin Klein of Butler for the 24th Assembly District; and the re-election campaign of Jim Sullivan of Wauwatosa who represents the 5th Senate District.

Christensen concluded, “We have a wildly talented group of candidates who each would serve the people of Waukesha County proudly in Madison. We will do everything we can as a party to help them demonstrate the strength of their message.”
