

STATE OF WISCONSIN

BARBARA LAWTON
LT. GOVERNOR

Monday, October 12, 2009

Contact: Matt Dulak, Office of the Lt. Governor, 608-266-3516

Lt. Governor Lawton to Kick Off Morgridge Family Foundation's Seminar on Preparing Students for 21st Century Workforce

Lt. Governor Lawton will discuss classroom technology's role in preparing students for the 21st century workforce at the 21st Century Classrooms Collaboration: Best Practices in Technology and Literacy Sharing Seminar at 4 p.m. on Monday, October 12 at Grainger Hall on the UW-Madison campus.

Hosted by the Morgridge Family Foundation, the seminar will focus on the role of technology in promoting student achievement and equipping students with the technological skills required for professional success in all sectors.

WHERE: Grainger Hall
 University of Wisconsin-Madison
 975 University Ave. Room #3190
 Madison

WHEN: Monday, October 12, 2009
 4 p.m.