Representative Duchow Sworn-In to Represent the 99th Assembly District

Madison, WI – Today, Representative Cindi Duchow (R-Town of Delafield) was sworn in to her second term representing the 99th Assembly District. The 103rd Legislative Session begins with 64 Assembly Republicans – the largest majority since 1957.

This session, Rep. Duchow will focus on continuing to lower the tax burden and reduce the size of government so that Wisconsin's families, businesses and economy can thrive. "With over 20 years of small business experience and as a two-time elected member of the Delafield Town Board, I bring a unique perspective to the issues facing our state's businesses and families," said Rep. Duchow. "I'm looking forward to getting right to work for my constituents and am excited to see what we can do to strengthen local control and reform our state's tax code."

Rep. Duchow will chair the Assembly's Consumer Protection Committee and will serve as vice chair of the Insurance and Family Law Committees. She was also appointed to sit on the Education, Local Government and Small Business Development Committees.

Rep. Duchow was joined at today's inauguration ceremony by her husband, Craig, and son Will.

The 99th Assembly District includes the communities of Chenequa, Delafield, Dousman, Hartland, Merton, Nashotah, Oconomowoc Lake, Ottawa, and Wales; and portions of Genesee, North Prairie, Oconomowoc, and Summit.
