Madison- Following inaugural ceremonies at the Capitol on Tuesday, Senator Dan Feyen said he was excited and eager to get to work on behalf of the citizens of Wisconsin’s 18th Senate District.

“I’m eager to delve into the big issues facing the residents of the 18th Senate District, and with my committee assignments I can do just that,” Feyen said.

Feyen was appointed to Chair the Economic Development, Commerce and Local Government Committee and will serve on the WEDC Board of Directors. He will also be the Vice Chair of the Workforce Development, Military Affairs, and Senior Issues Committee and will serve on several other Senate Committees.

“I’m excited to get started, we have our office setup, staff hired and we are ready to hit the ground running. My Committee assignments will allow me to tackle my biggest priority as a senator; closing Wisconsin’s Skills Gap,” said Feyen.

Senator Feyen represents the 18th Senate District, which includes parts of Dodge, Fond du Lac, and Winnebago Counties.
