Rep. Krug Takes Oath of Office for Fourth Term

Legislatures Sworn in for 2017-18 Wisconsin Legislative Session

Madison... Rep. Scott Krug (R-Rome) took the oath of office for his fourth term in a ceremony in the Assembly chambers Tuesday afternoon. He is enthusiastic to be a part of the historic majority in the 103rd Wisconsin State Legislature.

“Serving the constituents of the 72nd District is always my top priority,” said Rep. Krug. “Over the past several years, I have kept an open ear to the needs of those I represent, and I am motivated to work to further opportunities that will enhance personal prosperity for all.”

Rep. Krug is Chairman of Public Benefit Reform, Vice Chair of Environment and Forestry, and a member of the Children and Families, Colleges and Universities, Criminal Justice and Public Safety, Family Law, and Government Accountability and Oversight committees.

“I am eager to make a significant impact this session,” said Rep. Krug. “I have no doubt that my experience in the legislature paired with the committees I am serving on will help bring positive changes to move Wisconsin Forward.”

Rep. Krug is one of 64 Assembly Republicans in the 2017-2018 legislative session. It’s the largest GOP Assembly majority since 1957.
