Rep. Loudenbeck Begins Fourth Term in State Assembly

Announces Updated Staff and Contact Information

Madison- Representative Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) took the oath of office to represent the 31st Assembly District today, the first official day of the 103rd session of the Wisconsin Legislature.

“Inauguration day is very humbling and special. Taking the Constitutional Oath of Office is a distinct reminder of what an honor and a privilege it is to serve in the Wisconsin Legislature,” said Rep. Loudenbeck.

Rep. Loudenbeck has two full-time staff in Madison to assist her with constituent casework, scheduling, policy research and committee assignments.

“I am very proud of the exceptional team in my office. Michael Bruhn and Danielle Zimmerman are both highly qualified individuals. Their combined experience includes work in the Wisconsin Legislature, Governor’s office, the Department of Tourism, and the Department of Natural Resources. I am confident that they will ensure committee activities, communications and constituent services are handled in a timely and professional manner,” said Rep. Loudenbeck.

Rep. Loudenbeck’s office location has changed with her re-appointment to the Joint Committee on Finance. Contact information is as follows:
