Rep. Sargent Sworn-In to her Third Term in the State Assembly

MADISON – Representative Melissa Sargent (D-Madison) was sworn in today for the 2017-2018 legislative session in the Wisconsin State Assembly. Rep. Sargent has represented the 48th Assembly District since 2012.

“It is my honor to continue serving the citizens of the 48th Assembly District. As a lifelong Wisconsinite and Madison native, it is a thrill to represent the community that I love, the city that I grew up in, and the city in which I am raising my family,” Rep. Sargent stated. “As the voice to state government for all those I represent in the State Assembly, I take this responsibility extremely seriously.”

“I take it as my solemn duty to serve my constituents – both with first rate constituent services and in the legislative agenda I pursue. My work reflects the hopes and dreams of my friends and neighbors. They know that a government works best when it works for everyone. I will work relentlessly for quality public education at all levels, an economic system that creates a fair playing field, and equity and equality in our communities. We must work together to make our neighborhoods and the state of Wisconsin a better place to live, work, and raise our families.”

Rep. Sargent represents the 48th Assembly District which includes the North and East sides of Madison as well as the Village of Maple Bluff. During the 2017-2018 legislative session she will serve on the following committees: Joint Legislative Audit Committee, Committee on Small Business Development Committee on Energy and Utilities, the Committee on Mental Health Reform, and the Joint Committee on Information Policy and Technology.
