Jobs and Education Top Rep. Snyder's Agenda

New Wausau area state representative is sworn into office at the state Capitol in Madison.

Madison...State Representative Patrick Snyder (Schofield) is eager to get working on strengthening the economy, improving our schools, developing our workforce and protecting the taxpayers. Rep. Snyder took the oath of office during the inaugural ceremony in the Assembly Chambers this afternoon.

"I'm looking forward to being an independent voice for the district and work to advance legislation without partisan divisiveness," said Rep. Snyder.

As stated during the campaign, the representative made a pledge to make education his top priority in the next two-year state budget.

"I will not vote for any budget that does not increase funding for K-12 schools," said Rep. Snyder. "The future of Wisconsin depends on a well-educated workforce and we can't short change our kids."

Joining Rep. Snyder at the inaugural ceremony was his wife of 36 years, Shawn, his daughter Amy and her husband Chris Heitman and son, Dan and Becky Snyder.

The constituents of the 85th Assembly District can reach Rep. Snyder at his office located at 9 West in the Wisconsin State Capitol. His office number is (608) 266-0654 and e-mail is Rep.Snyder@legis.wisconsin.gov. The website will be found at RepSynder.com.
