Rep. Hutton Sworn In For His Third Term

MADISON – Today Representative Rob Hutton (R-Brookfield) was sworn in for his third term as Representative for Wisconsin’s 13th Assembly district.

“I am honored and humbled by the trust the residents of the 13th Assembly district have placed in me,” said Representative Hutton. “As I embark on this new session as their Representative my goal remains the same: to eliminate waste and remove burdensome government barriers for economic growth.”

Representative Hutton has been appointed to serve as Chair of the Government Accountability and Oversight Committee as well as Vice-Chair of the Corrections Committee. In addition Rep. Hutton will also serve on the Federalism and Interstate Relations, Regulatory and Interstate Relations, and Small Business Development committees.
