Rep. Rob Brooks Inaugurated for a Third Term

Madison, WI—Today, the 104th Wisconsin State Legislature was gaveled into session with the inauguration of all new members and those who won reelection in November. Representative Rob Brooks (R-Saukville) was sworn-in for a third term and will represent Wisconsin's 60th District in the State Assembly.

"I am humbled and honored to continue being a voice for my constituents in Madison," Brooks said. This session, I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle on important issues such as tax reform, transportation funding, and job creation," Brooks stated.

In the 104th Wisconsin State Legislature, Representative Rob Brooks (R-Saukville) will serve on the following committees: Joint Legislative Council (co-chairman); Medicaid Reform and Oversight (vice-chairman); Housing and Real Estate; Judiciary; and Ways and Means.

"I look forward to another productive session and working with my colleagues and Governor Evers to ensure that Wisconsin remains a great place to live, work, and raise a family," Representative Brooks said
