Madison, WI – Representative Felzkowski (R-Irma) expressed her excitement following her fourth Inauguration as State Representative for the 35th Assembly District:

“I am honored that my constituents have entrusted me to represent their interests once more. I take my oath of office to serve the 35th Assembly District with gratitude and humility. The value of my voice as an advocate for the Northwoods has never been clearer to me, and I will work hard to ensure our proven conservative principles continue to lead our state forward.”

“The start of every new session brings with it a renewed desire to achieve our goals and act to improve our state. This Inauguration Day also marked the beginning of Governor Tony Evers’ administration. I extend my congratulations to the new governor, and hope we can find ways to work together for the common good of all Wisconsinites. Last session, 93% of legislation passed had bipartisan support, and I hope we can continue that spirit of cooperation. ”

“I believe this coming session will present new challenges, but every challenge is also a new opportunity. I thank my constituents for allowing me to serve as their representative, and I’m eager to get to work.”
