Rep. Loudenbeck Begins Fifth Term in State Assembly

Madison- Representative Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) took the oath of office to represent the 31st Assembly District today, the first official day of the 104th session of the Wisconsin Legislature.

"Inauguration day is very humbling and special. Taking the Constitutional oath of office is a distinct reminder of what an honor and a privilege it is to serve the people of Wisconsin's 31st Assembly District," said Loudenbeck.

During the 104th Session, Rep. Loudenbeck will be serving on several boards and committees. She was recently appointed Vice Chair for the Joint Committee on Finance and Vice Chair for the Joint Committee on Information Policy and Technology. She will also continue to serve on the State Capitol and Executive Residence Board and the State Fair Park Board.

Danielle Zimmerman will continue as Rep. Loudenbeck's Chief of Staff. Zimmerman has worked in Rep. Loudenbeck's office for nearly five years and handles committee issues, policy research, and media communications.

Ellen Schutt is Rep. Loudenbeck's Legislative Assistant. Schutt has been with Rep. Loudenbeck's office for three years, including a two year internship. She will be handling Rep. Loudenbeck's schedule and constituent casework.

"I am very proud of the exceptional team in my office. Danielle and Ellen are both highly qualified individuals with deep roots in Rock and Walworth Counties. I am confident they will ensure committee activities, communications and constituent services are handled in a timely and professional manner," said Rep. Loudenbeck.
