Rep. Macco Begins New Term in the Wisconsin Assembly

Madison... Today, State Representative John Macco (R-Ledgeview) was sworn in to serve a third term representing the 88th Assembly District in the Wisconsin State Assembly. Representative Macco released the following statement.

“I am humbled that the people of the 88th Assembly District have sent me back to represent them in the Wisconsin State Assembly during the 2019-2020 legislative session. As we begin this new session, I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to continue to ensure that Wisconsin is a great place to raise a family and for businesses to create jobs,” said Rep. Macco.

“I have always believed that my colleagues on the other side of the aisle are just that – colleagues and fellow Wisconsinites – not enemies. Much in the spirit of former President Ronald Reagan and former Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives Tip O’Neill, I know that we can all work together over the next few years to craft compromises on state policy,” continued Rep. Macco.

This is Representative Macco’s third term in office. He will continue to serve as the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. Rep. Macco will also serve on the Committees on Campaigns and Elections; Jobs and the Economy; Regulatory and Licensing Reform; and Workforce Development. He will also maintain his position as Vice Chairman of the Joint Legislative Audit Committee.

The representative’s office is located in room 208 North at the Wisconsin State Capitol. He can be reached at (608) 266-0485 or by e-mail at Rep.Macco@legis.wi.gov. His legislative website can be found at www.repjohnmacco.com.
