Governor Evers, Lt. Governor Barnes Announce Additional Senior Leadership Team Members

MADISON -- Today, Governor Tony Evers and Lt. Governor Mandela Barnes continued to fill out the administration by announcing key members of their senior leadership team.

They join Maggie Gau, previously announced as chief of staff to Governor Evers, and deputy chiefs of staff Melissa Moore Baldauff, Kara Pennoyer, and Barbara Worcester.

"As Governor, I am committed to building a new administration that will listen to the people of our state and put their needs first," Governor Tony Evers said. "The senior leadership team that Lt. Governor Mandela Barnes and I have assembled will play a key role in achieving these goals. This diverse team brings to the table experience at every level of government, in the private sector, and in non-profits; a keen understanding of the legislative and budget process; and a passion for public service. I'm honored to have these talented folks join our administration."
