Sun Prairie Educators to be Recognized as Wisconsin Assembly 'Hometown Heroes'

MADISON – The Wisconsin State Assembly will recognize Pete and Terry Twedell from Sun Prairie, Wisconsin as “Hometown Heroes” at the upcoming Assembly session on January 16th.

The Twedells, both retired teachers, were nominated by their State Representative, Gary Hebl (D-Sun Prairie), for their years of continued commitment to their community. Pete Twedell was active in Sun Prairie education and athletics as a math teacher and football and basketball coach, creating a positive environment for students both academically and athletically. Similarly, Terry Twedell taught elementary school and volunteered her time at numerous organizations that benefit the community. Together as a couple, the Twedells have contributed their time and talents to bettering their community.

“Pete and Terry Twedell’s selfless contributions to their community make them a great recipient of the Assembly Hometown Hero Award,” said Assembly Majority Leader Jim Steineke (R-Kaukauna), who selected the Twedells to receive the award. “Their decades of contributing their talents and time to causes close to them and their neighbors has not gone unnoticed.”

The Wisconsin State Assembly sees giving back to the community as one of the most valuable characteristics one can have. The Assembly Hometown Heroes program seeks to identify and recognize individuals from around the state who give of themselves to make a difference in our communities and in the lives of those around them. Hometown Hero Award winners are invited and introduced as a special guest at an Assembly floor session and given the opportunity to speak.
