Rep. Sargent Announces 2019-2020 Committee Assignments

MADISON – Representative Melissa Sargent (D-Madison) is pleased to announce her appointment to five committees for the 2019-2020 Legislative Session including: the Legislative Joint Audit Committee, and the Assembly Committee on Small Business Development, both of which she will be a ranking member on. She will also serve as a member on the Assembly Committees on Substance Abuse & Prevention, Mental Health, and Science & Technology.

“As the ranking Assembly member of the Joint Audit Committee, I look forward to holding Republicans accountable and increasing transparency for hardworking Wisconsin taxpayers. As elected officials, we are stewards of these hard-earned taxpayer dollars, and should support and strengthen, and work with our communities and people across the state, to build an economy that works for all of us.”
