

College Presents Dream Week to Honor Martin Luther King, Jr.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
608-663-2333

Contact: Ed Taylor, Director of Strategic Communications

Madison, Wis. (January 15, 2019) – Edgewood College is pleased to announce a series of educational and cultural events to commemorate the life and work of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

DREAM Week: UNITY begins with an opening ceremony featuring a keynote address by Dr. Phyllis Esposito, Director of the Center for Multicultural Education at Edgewood College.

Dr. Esposito is an experienced public school educator, and most recently served as a member of the faculty at Evergreen State College in Olympia, Washington. Dr. Esposito holds a Ph.D. in Curriculum and Teaching from the University of Kansas.

The ceremony and keynote take place at 4:00 pm, Monday, February 4, 2019, in Anderson Auditorium. Tickets are not required, and Greater Madison is warmly invited.

Other DREAM Week: UNITY events include:

- Hosting students from Madison's East High School for a special day on campus on Feb. 5.
- A screening followed by a discussion of the Spike Lee film "BlacKkKlansman" on Feb. 6.
- Black Professionals panel discussion presented by the Black Student Union at Edgewood College on Feb. 7.
- The Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Awards Banquet, recognizing students of color and student organizations at Edgewood College on Feb. 8.

About Edgewood College

Located in Madison, Wis., Edgewood College is a liberal arts Catholic college in the Dominican tradition. We serve approximately 2,000 undergraduate and graduate students at our Monroe Street and Deming Way campuses, and online. The College offers more than 40 academic and professional programs, including master's degrees in business, education, and nursing, and doctoral degrees in educational leadership and nursing practice. For more information about Edgewood College, please visit www.edgewood.edu, or call Ed Taylor in Marketing & Strategic Communications at 608-663-2333.

###