ICYMI: Dr. Lowell Holtz Interview With Vicki McKenna

“We can no longer accept failing schools... We need schools that are going to give our kids the opportunity to be successful and a hope for the future.”

(Beloit, WI) Dr. Lowell Holtz, candidate for Wisconsin’s Superintendent of Public Instruction, joined 1310 WIBA talk show host, Vicki McKenna, on Friday and detailed his vision for the future of Wisconsin’s schools and children.

You can listen to a podcast of the broadcast online at: goo.gl/QVHzhw. The interview with Dr. Holtz begins at 6:15.

Dr. Lowell Holtz is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction in Wisconsin. He has led district improvement efforts as Superintendent of the Palmyra-Eagle, Beloit, and Whitnall School Districts. He spent much of his childhood in Milwaukee’s Sherman Park neighborhood, and is the son of a retired Milwaukee Police Officer. Lowell is married to Dr. Susan Holtz, his high school sweetheart and wife of 36 years, and together they have raised five grown children. In addition to his roles in education, Dr. Holtz has over two decades of experience in law enforcement.
