Statement on Middle Class Tax Cut Proposal

Madison – Today, Rep. Amy Loudenbeck (R-Clinton) joined her Assembly Republican colleagues in announcing plans to deliver $340 million in tax relief to benefit working families across Wisconsin.

“I’m proud that our budgeting the last several years has resulted in a budget surplus that we will now be able to return to the hard working taxpayers,” said Rep. Loudenbeck. “I have always been a big fan of allowing people to keep more of their hard earned money. Our plan does this without raising taxes in other areas and will provide more disposable income for working families, which will benefit all sectors of Wisconsin’s economy.”

The proposed tax reductions are targeted to individuals making less than $100,000 and families earning $150,000 or less. The nonpartisan Legislative Fiscal Bureau projects the median income family filing jointly would see a $310 reduction in net taxes.
