Statement on the Inauguration of President Donald Trump

"We hope that Donald Trump sticks to his campaign promises of ending bad trade deals, reworking NAFTA to bring back good jobs, investing in infrastructure and fixing a rigged economy that favors the wealthy," said Phil Neuenfeldt, President of the Wisconsin

AFL-CIO. "As a new President takes office, we pledge, as always, to continue to fight for the economic advancement of all workers as well as a more just and equal world for all people."

"Over the next four years, workers will be watching. We want to see increases in wages, strong overtime protections, advancements in workplace safety, and family friendly policies like paid leave and affordable healthcare that help working families make ends meet," said Stephanie Bloomingdale, Secretary-Treasurer of the Wisconsin State

AFL-CIO. "It's never too early or too late to fight for a more just world. Workers will be watching and speaking up for our rights throughout the Trump administration."
