Representative Stafsholt Supports Assembly Republican Caucus Transportation Budget and Tax Relief Plan

Madison, WI. – State Representative Rob Stafsholt (R-New Richmond) expressed his support for the Assembly Republican Caucus plan to provide tax relief to the taxpayers of Wisconsin while also addressing our transportation budget deficit.

“The Legislative Fiscal Bureau estimated that the State of Wisconsin will start out the next fiscal year with $2 billion in increased revenues. Because of the fiscally responsible decisions of Governor Walker and his administration, this is $400 million more than we have started a budget with since 2011.”

Governor Walker has made a promise to the people of Wisconsin that we will not raise the taxes of our hard working citizens. The Assembly Republicans proposal is a broad framework that calls for a $300 million increase in transportation revenue while also providing at least $300 million in tax cuts to our people.

“This plan is a solid step toward a sustainable solution to our state transportation funding. It provides more tax relief to Wisconsinites, and focuses on the quality of the roads we all depend on including our rural township roads and highways in the 29th District.”
