NEUBAUER CAMPAIGN UNVEILS LATEST ENDORSEMENTS

RACINE -- The Judge Lisa Neubauer for Justice campaign released endorsements from Administrative Law Judge and District IV Court of Appeals candidate Jennifer Nashold, Green County Sheriff Jeff Skatrud, and retired Milwaukee County District Attorney E. Michael McCann. Judge Neubauer has been endorsed by 23 current and former Court of Appeals judges, on which both Chief Judge Neubauer and her opponent serve. Neubauer has been endorsed by over 310 judges, 24 sheriffs, and 49 district attorneys.

"Judge Neubauer is the overwhelming pick of the judges who have worked with both candidates on the Court of Appeals," said Tyler Hendricks, campaign manager. "Judges, sheriffs, and district attorneys are united - we need Judge Neubauer to be our fair, impartial, and independent voice on the Wisconsin Supreme Court."

After joining the Court of Appeals, Judge Neubauer was elected in 2008 and re-elected in 2014, and has served as Chief Judge since 2015. She had almost two decades of experience as a litigation attorney at Foley & Lardner before joining the appellate court and also served as a law clerk for Judge Barbara Crabb, then-Chief Judge of the United States District Court, Western District of Wisconsin. Judge Neubauer lives in Racine with her husband, Jeff, and they are the proud parents of three children.
