Wisconsin Utility Investors Announces 2017 Executive Committee & Newly Elected Board Members

Madison - The Wisconsin Utility Investors (WUI) announces the 2017 Executive Committee and board members elected at the 2016 Annual Meeting, held at the National Train Museum in Green Bay, WI.

Executive Board Members - The WUI Executive Committee was approved by the board of directors for a one year term of Chairman, Roger Cole; Vice Chairman, Richard Krueger; Treasurer, Kenyon Kies; Assistant Treasurer, Charles Clarke; and Secretary, Thomas Fehring.

Retiring Directors - Patrick Culbert, Barbara Swan and Paul Vanderbloemen have stepped down from their service on the Board. WUI members have expressed appreciation for the years of service the outgoing board members have volunteered to the organization.

Board of Directors Election - Roger Cole and Richard Krueger were re-elected each to a 2 year term, along with newly elected Board Members, Phillip Mikulsky and Jeffrey West.

About New Members of the Board of Directors

Phillip Mikulsky recently retired from WEC Energy Group after 45 years of increasing responsibility and experience.

Jeffrey West joins the board with experience as Vice President and Treasurer of Wisconsin Energy Corp. and We Energies. Jeff worked his way up through the ranks after starting with the company as a meter-reader in 1970.

About WUI

WUI is the oldest state utility investor organization. For more than 30 years, the grassroots association has represented utility shareholders in Wisconsin as they strive to strengthen Wisconsin's economy and protect shareholder dividends through involvement in the political process.
