Holtz Rolls Out State Legislator Endorsements

(Beloit, WI) – Dr. Lowell Holtz, candidate for Wisconsin Superintendent of Public Instruction, announced the endorsements he has received from current and former state representatives.

The growing list presently includes:

Senator Dave Craig	Representative Daniel Knodl
Senator Van Wanggaard	Representative John Macco
Representative Janel Brandtjen	Representative Joe Sanfelippo
Representative Bob Gannon	Representative Thomas Weatherston
Representative Cody Horlacher	Former State Senator Mary Lazich
Representative André Jacque	Former Representative Don Pridemore
Representative Samantha Kerkman

“Dr. Holtz has the experience necessary to find solutions for Wisconsin's varied and complex educational system,” said State Representative Janel Brandtjen. “He will roll up his sleeves, work with all stakeholders and develop successful student outcomes.”

Holtz said, “I am humbled by the outpouring of support my candidacy has received from a group of state legislators with such diverse backgrounds. I appreciate their trust in my ability to lead education reform for future generations of Wisconsin’s children.”

Dr. Holtz has taught in classrooms, been recognized as a Wisconsin Principal of the Year, and has led district improvement efforts as Superintendent of the Palmyra-Eagle, Beloit, and Whitnall School Districts. He spent much of his childhood in Milwaukee’s Sherman Park neighborhood, and is the son of a retired Milwaukee Police Officer. Lowell is married to Dr. Susan Holtz, his high school sweetheart and wife of 36 years, and together they have raised five grown children. In addition to his roles in education, Dr. Holtz has over two decades of experience in law enforcement.
