Representative Snyder Announces First In-District Budget Listening Session

Madison... Today, State Representative Patrick Snyder (Schofield) announced he will hold an in-district listening session to discuss Wisconsin's 2017-2019 biennial budget. This is the first planned listening session Rep. Snyder will hold.

"Governor Walker is going to hand us a budget and it is important for me to understand how the constituents of my district feel about it. This is a way to connect directly with them and gather their input," said Snyder. "I promised the people I represent that I would listen to them, and this opportunity to discuss the Governor's proposed budget with Wisconsin's citizens is a valuable part of the process. I encourage anyone and everyone from the 85th Assembly District to attend."

Rep. Snyder will be available to meet with constituents at the location and time listed below:
