Madison- State Senator Dan Feyen (R-Fond du Lac) applauds the Milwaukee Bucks for selecting the City of Oshkosh as the home for their new 'D-League' team.

"This is wonderful news for the City of Oshkosh," said Senator Feyen, "It's great to see Oshkosh repurpose the old Buckstaff property, which had become an quite an eyesore over the years."

The Milwaukee Bucks have announced Oshkosh as the home of the team's new Development League team. Private investors from the Oshkosh area will be building a 3,500 seat arena at a projected cost of $15-20 million on the site of the former Buckstaff Furniture Company in Oshkosh's Sawdust District. The arena will also be available to host concerts and other activities making positive contributions to the Oshkosh economy.

"This project is a great catalyst for re-development in the Sawdust District, Feyen said, "the new team, along with the developments along the river downtown, will help Oshkosh remain 'Wisconsin's Events City!'" Feyen said.
