Madison, WI – Earlier today, Speaker Vos (R-Rochester) announced the membership of the Speaker’s Task Force on Water Quality. Rep Felzkowski (R-Irma) expressed her appreciation for being named to the task force:

“Growing up and raising a family in the Northwoods, countless celebrations, holidays and weekends are spent enjoying Wisconsin’s lakes. They play an irreplaceable role in our daily lives. They not only contribute to our quality of life, but are the foundations of our region’s recreation and tourism.”

The Speaker’s bipartisan Task Force on Water Quality will tour the state gathering input from experts and hosting public hearings to learn about the various issues each region is facing.

“Water is one of Wisconsin’s most valuable natural resources, and the backbone of our ever-growing tourism industry. I look forward to learning more about the unique water situations in each corner of our state. This is an important conversation we need to have, and my legislative colleagues and I are committed to addressing the growing concerns.”

The Speaker’s Task Force on Water Quality’s public hearing schedule will be announced in the coming weeks.
