Representative Zimmerman to Hold In-District Meeting February 27th

Madison, WI Rep. Shannon Zimmerman (R-River Falls) is pleased to announce two in-district meetings to discuss Governor Walker's proposed budget for the upcoming biennium. These listening sessions will be open to the public and are meant to serve as an interactive opportunity to share ideas, concerns and viewpoints. All constituents are encouraged to attend to voice their opinions in a welcoming and productive environment. Both events will take place on Feb. 27.

The first event is scheduled from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM, at the River Falls City Hall:

City Hall, 222 Lewis Street, River Falls, WI 54022

The second event will take place from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM, at the UW-River Falls Hudson Center:

Hudson Center, 2501 Hanley Road, Suite 200 Hudson, WI 54016

“Governor Walker’s proposed budget will give a glimpse into the possible solutions to our state’s funding issues such as road infrastructure and education. Both subjects are near and dear to the constituents of District-30 and I look forward to hearing everyone’s input on how we can keep Wisconsin moving forward.”
