Rep. Kind's Statement on President Trump's Address to Congress

La Crosse, WI – Today, following President Trump's address to a joint session of Congress, U.S. Rep. Ron Kind released the following statement:

"If the President Trump is serious about working to expand economic opportunities for all Wisconsinites with good paying jobs, then I look forward to working with him. However, if he puts his own self-interests ahead of the interests of our country, there will be problems. For example, the President should support the creation of an independent commission to investigate Russian interference in the 2016 election, embrace transparency by releasing his tax returns, and divest himself from all personal business dealings at home and abroad."
