Rep. Young Celebrates Dr. Seuss Birthday by Reading to Students at Hopkins Lloyd Elementary School

MADISON – State Representative Leon Young (D-Milwaukee) celebrated Dr. Seuss birthday today by reading one of his books to students at Hopkins Lloyd Community School. This is an annual tradition at Milwaukee Public Schools.

Dr. Seuss life spanned from 1904-1991. He was a great cartoonist and author of children books. Dr. Seuss published over 60 books, which included the likes of: The Cat in Hat, Green Eggs and Ham and one of my favorites Horton Hears a Who.

We take time out on this day to wish Dr. Seuss posthumously a happy birthday by reading his classic tales to eager young minds all around the world!
