New TDA On the Go podcast episode examines Governor Evers' proposed transportation budget

Madison, WI – TDA Wisconsin looks at Governor Tony Evers' budget proposal in the latest episode of the "On the Go" podcast.

"People know Wisconsin's transportation system is in rough shape and that we need to just fix it. Now, we need consensus on how to fix it," said Debby Jackson, TDA executive director. "TDA will continue to analyze the various transportation proposals and discuss developments in future episodes."

The podcast is available on all popular podcasting platforms and via this link: <http://www.tdawisconsin.org/on-the-go-podcast/>

About TDA

From the buses in Racine to the Port of Green Bay to the rail lines in Superior to the Waukesha County Airport to the roads we use every day, Wisconsin's transportation network is the key to connecting goods to market and people to jobs.

Founded in 1971, the Transportation Development Association of Wisconsin promotes the vitality and safety of the state's transportation system, including public transit systems, public-use and general aviation airports, railroads, commercial ports, and roads. TDA's members include businesses, labor unions, citizen groups, units of government and individuals.
