Statement on Gov. Walker Signing Right to Work

"By signing Right to Work into law, Gov. Walker continues his crusade on the hard-working, middle-class families of Wisconsin," said Phil Neuenfeldt, President of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO. "From refusing to expand BadgerCare for the sick, to enacting tax cuts for the rich, gutting education and eroding collective bargaining rights – Gov. Walker has shown a true disregard for Wisconsin families who work hard every day to put food on the table and a roof over their head. How can anyone who isn't a special interest bankrolling politicians' campaigns get ahead in Scott Walker's Wisconsin?"

"Today, Gov. Walker continues to tip the scales against working class families in favor of his millionaire buddies who fund his campaign. Gov. Walker's political stock amongst the campaign-funding elite may be rising, but it is the people of Wisconsin who are paying the price of his unchecked political ambition," said Stephanie Bloomingdale, Secretary-Treasurer of the Wisconsin State AFL-CIO. "Wisconsin citizens should ask the Governor, who called for this Right to Work law? Not workers and not our state's employers who went on record to acknowledge the value unions bring to their companies. It's time Scott Walker wakes up from his dream of higher office long enough to remember who he took an oath to serve – the working families of Wisconsin not extremist out-of-state donors."
