Carpenters Union endorses David Crowley and Jason Fields in Milwaukee area races
Proven leaders will advance pro-worker agendas

Madison – The North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters today endorsed David Crowley for Milwaukee County Executive and Jason Fields for Milwaukee Comptroller.

State Rep. David Crowley has consistently voted to support pro-worker policies as a member of the State Legislature where he serves on Energy & Utilities and Workforce committees. “Rep. Crowley has a track record of standing up for the unionized building trades. The Carpenters look forward to continuing to partner with Rep. Crowley as County Executive to ensure county projects are built to the highest standard while delivering the best value for taxpayers,” stated Andrew Disch, Political Director for Wisconsin.

State Rep. Jason Fields has also stood with the hardworking men and women of labor. He has been a strong supporter of apprenticeship programs which offer a real pathway to rewarding careers and a middle-class way of life. “As comptroller, Rep. Fields will oversee sound city investment and growth that will result in work opportunities for union carpenters,” Disch concluded.

The Spring General election will be held on Tuesday, April 7, 2020.
