Rep. Dittrich Announces Budget Listening Sessions

Constituents Encouraged to Attend, Share Thoughts

Madison – Today, Representative Barbara Dittrich (Oconomowoc – R) announced her plans to hold budget listening sessions in various locations around the 38th Assembly District.

“I am looking forward to holding a second round of budget listening sessions. I feel it is important to give the residents of the 38th Assembly District an opportunity to share their thoughts, concerns, and questions regarding the 2019-2021 proposed state budget. I look forward to answering any questions and helping individuals understand how the proposed budget will affect them personally,” shared Rep. Dittrich.
