News Release

UW-Stout Chancellor Search and Screen Committee named

MADISON, Wis. – University of Wisconsin System President Ray Cross and Board of Regents President John Robert Behling have finalized a 10-member Search and Screen Committee to help identify the next chancellor of the University of Wisconsin–Stout.

In accordance with Regent Policy Document 6-4, the Search and Screen Committee is composed of 10 members, including five Regents and five individuals knowledgeable about the duties and responsibilities of the position.

Regent Behling appointed five Regents to the Search and Screen Committee, which will be chaired by Regent Jason Plante. President Cross, after consulting with members of UW-Stout's shared governance groups and other members of the university community, appointed the five non-Regent members of the committee, including two faculty members, one staff representative, one student, and one community/alumni member. Associate Professor Julie Bates-Maves will serve as committee vice chair.

Serving on the Search and Screen Committee are:

- Chair: Regent Jason Plante
- Vice Chair: Julie Bates-Maves, Associate Professor in the College of Education, Hospitality, Health and Human Sciences (faculty)
- Regent John Robert Behling
- Anne Kelly Hoel, Professor in the College of Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics and Management (faculty)
- Regent Cris Peterson
- Kimberly Polzin, Board Vice President of Stout University Foundation (community/alumni member)
- Alexander Serier, Vice President of the Stout Student Association (student)
- Regent Carolyn Stanford Taylor
- Regent S. Mark Tyler
- Lystra Yates, Records Manager in UW-Stout's Registration and Records Office (staff)

The committee will consider candidates to replace Chancellor Bob Meyer, who has announced he will step down in August. Provost Patrick Guilfoile has agreed to serve as interim chancellor starting Aug. 18. UW-Stout serves about 9,000 students on its campus in Menomonie, Wis.
