

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 10, 2019

CONTACT: 608-266-5340

Representative Hesselbein Announces Listening Sessions

MADISON – Representative Dianne Hesselbein will be conducting listening sessions throughout the 79th Assembly District in the upcoming weeks.

“As we begin the biennial budget process, it is important for legislators to be accessible to their constituents. I hope to have great discussions with my constituents on budget issues and other legislative matters. When I have the opportunity to hear directly from people living in the 79th Assembly District, I have a better understanding of the issues people are faced with on a daily basis,” said Representative Hesselbein.

Listening sessions will take place throughout the 79th Assembly District and are as follows:

Friday, May 3

Village of Cross Plains

10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Crossroads Coffeehouse, 2020 Main Street, Cross Plains

Friday, May 3

Village of Waunakee

3:30 – 5:00 p.m.

Waunakee Village Center, Community Room B, 333 S Madison St, Waunakee

Monday, May 6

Town of Verona

4:30 – 6:00 p.m.

Town Hall, 7669 County Hwy PD, Verona

Thursday, May 9

City of Middleton

4:30 – 6:00 p.m.

Chocolaterian Café, 6637 University Ave, Middleton

All members of the public are encouraged to attend. Constituents who cannot attend listening sessions are always welcome to contact Representative Hesselbein’s office at 608-266-5340 or

Rep.Hesselbein@legis.wisconsin.gov.

###