

Wisconsin Wildlife Federation

April 16, 2019

Contact: George Meyer, Executive Director, 608-516-5545

Wisconsin Wildlife Federation Names Conservation Award Winners

Poynette: The Wisconsin Wildlife Federation, the state's largest conservation group, at its 70th Anniversary celebration, April 13th, announced its 2019 Conservation Award Winners. They are.

1. Conservationist of the Year: Dane County Executive Joe Parisi
2. Conservation Legislator of the Year: Representative Katrina Shankland, Stevens Point
3. Conservation Organization of the Year: Dane County Conservation League
4. Conservation Warden of the Year: Dale Hochhausen, LaCrosse
5. Water Conservationist of the Year: Midwest Environmental Advocates, Madison
6. Wildlife Conservationist of the Year: Brad Koele, Woodruff
7. Conservation Educator of the Year: David Kuckuk, Plymouth
8. Statewide Educator of the Year: Sandy Benton, Hortonville
9. Forest Conservationist of the Year: Steve Ring, Shiocton
10. Forest Professional of the Year: Chris Schmitz, Neillsville
11. Youth Conservationist of the Year: Adam Tess, Sun Prairie
12. Conservation Communicators of the Year: Matt Lallemon and Laurie Groskopf, Tomahawk
13. Hunter Safety Instructor of the Year: Dale Moody, DeForest
14. Hunter Safety Instructor Team of the Year: The Brown County Sportsman's Club and the DePere Sportsman's Club Hunter Education Team