Old National Bank joins LGBT Chamber as newest Gold Founding Member

MILWAUKEE – The Wisconsin LGBT Chamber of Commerce announced today that Old National Bank has joined the Chamber as its newest gold founding member.

“We are pleased to welcome Old National Bank as our newest gold founding member of the LGBT Chamber,” said Jason Rae, President & CEO of the Wisconsin LGBT Chamber of Commerce. “They are an organization that values diversity & inclusion. We look forward to working with their team to grow a more inclusive business community all across our state.”

“Old National Bank is committed to being a leader in the financial services industry for the LGBT community,” said Kevin Anderson, Wisconsin Region CEO. “We know that partnering with the LGBT Chamber will give us the opportunity to continue reaching a diverse set of clients, as well as supporting our LGBT and allied associates. We look forward to a strong partnership with this award-winning organization.”

Old National Bancorp (NASDAQ: ONB) is the holding company of Old National Bank. Headquartered in Evansville with $19.7 billion in assets, it is a top 100 U.S. bank, the largest Indiana-based bank and has been recognized as a World’s Most Ethical Company by the Ethisphere Institute for eight consecutive years. For nearly 185 years, Old National has been a community bank committed to building long-term, highly valued relationships with clients. With locations in Wisconsin, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Minnesota, Old National provides retail and commercial banking services along with comprehensive wealth management, investment and capital markets services.
