Senator Kapenga Hosts Listening Session in Hartland on Wednesday

Madison – State Senator Chris Kapenga (R-Town of Delafield) will host a listening session with State Representative Cindi Duchow (R-Town of Delafield) at the Hartland Public Library on Wednesday, April 25th from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM. The Hartland Public Library is located at 110 East Park Avenue in Hartland.

“Listening sessions are a great opportunity for constituents of the 33rd Senate District to stay informed on legislative topics, share ideas, and voice their opinion,” said Senator Kapenga. “I look forward to meeting and hearing from constituents on the issues that are important to them.”

Senator Kapenga also has additional listening sessions scheduled for Wednesday, May 9th at the Waukesha Public Library and Wednesday, May 23rd at the Pauline Haass Public Library in Sussex. Both sessions run from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM. Constituents that would like to share an opinion or need assistance with state government, but are unable to attend a scheduled listening session are free to contact Senator Kapenga’s office at (608)266-9174 or Sen.Kapenga@legis.wi.gov.

Senator Kapenga represents the 33rd Senate District, which covers all or parts of the following communities: Chenequa, Delafield, Dousman, Genesee, Hartland, Merton, Nashotah, North Prairie, Ottawa, Pewaukee, Oconomowoc Lake, Summit, Sussex and Waukesha.
