Rep. Summerfield Releases Spring Survey State Representative Seeking Public Input on State Concerns

Madison... Rep. Rob Summerfield (R-Bloomer) announced the release of his 2017 Spring Survey, a brief questionnaire designed to garner public feedback on issues currently facing Wisconsin.

“This is yet another way for my constituents to tell me their thoughts on matters like the state budget, transportation, broadband expansion, and more. I’ve heard from many of my constituents through office contacts and district listening sessions, but this survey is a much larger attempt to reach out to them to gather this information,” said Summerfield.

Certain households in the 67th District will receive a paper copy of the Representative’s survey, but for those who either don’t receive a paper copy or want to save a stamp, the survey can also be found online.

“It’s quick, easy, and just a click away – in 10 minutes or less, they can let me know their position on these issues from the comfort of their own home.”
