Speaker Vos and the State GOP Assembly Leadership endorse Kapenga for 33rd Senate

Delafield – On Tuesday, Speaker Robin Vos and the State GOP Assembly Leadership announced their support of Rep. Chris Kapenga for the 33rd Senate District, which is being vacated by County Executive Paul Farrow.

Speaker Robin Vos, Speaker pro tempore Tyler August, Majority Leader Jim Steineke, Assistant Majority Leader Dan Knodl, and Secretary Jessie Rodriguez are united in their support for Kapenga, reflecting their confidence in his experience and leadership ability.

“Time and time again Chris has stood up for our core conservative principles,” said Speaker Robin Vos. “He’s a proven leader who has played a key role in many important issues like passing Wisconsin’s Right to Work Law. Chris would be an excellent member of the Wisconsin State Senate.”

“I am honored to have earned the trust and support of the Republican Assembly Leadership,” said Kapenga. “I have worked hard to maintain conservative principles and put our state on the right track. I look forward to working with them from the Senate to continue putting Wisconsin taxpayers first.”

Kapenga, who was the lead Assembly author on Right to Work, has served as State Representative for the 99th Assembly district since 2010. He is a Certified Public Accountant and owner of a technology company with offices around the country. Kapenga resides in Delafield with his wife and two daughters.

The primary and general election dates are expected to be this summer and will be called by Gov. Scott Walker upon County Executive Farrow’s resignation.
