Is ranked as most bipartisan member of the Wisconsin Delegation

La Crosse, WI – Today, the nonpartisan Lugar Center released their annual rankings of the most independent members of the House. The Lugar Center found that in the 114th Congress Rep. Kind ranked 19th in bipartisanship out of all 435 members and 1st in the Wisconsin Delegation.

“In my conversations with Wisconsinites the constant complaint I hear is about how dysfunctional and divided Congress is. I am proud that based on my record, the nonpartisan Lugar Center ranked me as the 19th most independent member in Congress, out of 435. I look forward to continuing to work with anyone willing to find solutions for the challenges hard-working Wisconsinites face,” said Rep. Kind.
