Area Legislators Announce District Listening Session for Monday, May 17th

MADISON—State Representative Timothy Ramthun (R-Campbellsport) has announced a district listening session for May 17, 2021. Representative Ramthun will host the listening session in the City of Hartford Council Chambers. State Representative Janel Brandtjen (R-Menomonee Falls) and State Representative Rick Gundrum (R-Slinger) will be joining Rep. Ramthun. All three legislators represent portions of Washington County in the Wisconsin State Assembly.

Rep. Ramthun: “This is a great opportunity to give your input on how the state spends your tax dollars. I look forward to having a great discussion and keeping our government of, by, and for the people.”

Rep. Brandtjen: “I look forward to hearing from our constituents.”

Rep. Gundrum: “It is an honor to join Representative Ramthun and Representative Brandtjen for Rep. Ramthun’s Budget Listening Session on Monday, May 17th. I appreciate the opportunity to hear from my constituents on what they would like to see in the upcoming biennial budget.”
