

The following is a statement from me in response to today's court decision.

Governor Walker is committed to openness and transparency in government, which is why we are immediately releasing the records involved in this case. We appreciate the clarification and guidance provided by the court's decision, which were necessary to confirm the types of drafts that are not records. We will continue to comply with the public records law.