Madison-based E.M. Wasylik Opens Chicago Office

Madison, WI – June 5, 2019 – E.M. Wasylik Associates (EMW), established in 1998, has expanded its footprint by opening a new office in Chicago. EMW and its team are experts in sales, operations, marketing and finance, working with companies around the world that are emerging and expanding globally. This is the firm’s third office within the United States.

EMW’s Michael Stone will lead the Chicago office and continue in his role of International Business Developer. Stone is a seasoned professional who brings a dynamic approach to business development and market research, and has worked successfully for years with clients as they navigate complex international sales initiatives across a diverse range of industries.

Ken Wasylik, Managing Director of EMW, will work with Stone to develop the new Chicago office. “Mike has been with our team for many years, and has worked extensively with clients both in the Midwest and around the globe on six continents. He is the ideal team member to develop our third U.S. office and bring an expanded network of connections and contacts to our client base, as well as to expand our base of U.S. clients looking to grow their international sales.”
