SUPREME MOORE OMOKUNDE ANNOUNCES ENDORSEMENT FROM FORMER STATE REP. JON RICHARDS

Richards sees Supreme as experienced, best to lead on changes needed at state level

MILWAUKEE - Supreme Moore Omokunde, current Milwaukee County Board Supervisor and candidate for the 17th District of the Wisconsin State Assembly, today announced the support of former state Rep. Jon Richards:

Richards stated, "Supreme will be an effective fighter for the necessary change in our justice system, for healthcare that covers everyone and costs less, and for environmental justice. He knows how to bring people together to build a strong and thriving Milwaukee. We need his experienced leadership in the State Assembly."

Moore Omokunde added, "As the former chair of the Assembly Health Committee and author of the Wisconsin smoking ban, Jon Richards spent his time being committed to building a stronger and safer Wisconsin. As a fellow public servant who chairs the County Board's Committee on Health and Human Needs, I know the work it takes to accomplish the changes we need. I'm honored to have his support and look forward to continuing my commitment to public health in the State Assembly."

Authorized by Supreme for Assembly

Born and raised in Milwaukee, Supervisor Supreme Moore Omokunde learned the values of community and social empowerment through his parents, Rev. Dr. Tolokun Omokunde and Congresswoman Gwen Moore. From an early age, he has dedicated himself to the advancement of social justice and spent much of his life working toward the betterment of his community before becoming a county supervisor. Supervisor Supreme Moore Omokunde was first elected by the 10th District community in 2015, and re-elected in 2016, 2018 and 2020. The primary election will be held August 11, 2020 and the general election November 3, 2020. For more information, visit www.supremeforassembly.com.
